The background of the book cover is a photograph of a sunset over the ocean. The sky is filled with dark, heavy clouds, with a bright orange and yellow glow from the setting sun breaking through near the horizon. The water in the foreground is dark blue with white-capped waves. In the distance, a small white ship is visible on the horizon line, and a lighthouse or marker is visible on the right side.

The signatories were not merely men of business experience but were inspired by more than a fair measure of public spirit and responsibility. Mr. J. R. D. Tata and Mr. G. D. Birla were primarily responsible for the initiation of the study. Mr. Tata is head of the well-known House of Tata, and is noted in India for his progressive outlook on life and business. Mr.

Birla, the head of  Birla Brothers, who own and manage a variety of industrial enterprises, is interested in educational and social work. Sir P. Thakurdas, the doyen of the business community, has enjoyed a reputation for possessing a wide outlook and for courageous thinking and speaking. Mr. Kasturbhai Lalbhai and Sir Shri Ram are leading mill-owners in Ahmedabad and Delhi respectively, and have business activities extending to other fields. The other three signatories — Sir Ardeshir Dalal, Mr. A. D. Shroff and Dr. John Matthai — are employees and directors of Tata Sons, Ltd., and the fact that they too signed the pamphlet is significant as showing that it was in no sense to be regarded as an industrialist's plan, at least when it was put out.
